

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. H. Bickers and Mrs. Mary La Dow were hostesses yesterday at a very interesting meeting of the Current Literature Club held in the Club Room of the library. "Siberia" was the general topic of the afternoon, the following numbers being given:

Talk: "Life and Conditions in Siberia: Physical Aspect and Climate; The Significance of Siberia," by Mrs. Mary Disosway.

Paper: "Convict Life, the Prison System; Penal Servitude and Settlements; Prison at Irkutsk," by Mrs. H. H. Hattery.

Music: Two vocal solos by Mrs. S. H. Forshaw.

Brief story of "The House of the Dead" (Dostoyevsky), by Mrs. I. U. Temple, and a discussion, "Sports and Amusements in Siberia," led by Mrs. A. J. McAllister, assisted by Mrs. Johns and Mrs. Bonney.

In addition to the regular program, Mrs. Olive Haven of Salt Lake gave a very interesting little talk on "Seega," and Home Industries.

A charming social hour concluded the afternoon, the tea table being in charge of Mrs. John Vert and Mrs. E. B. Aldrich. The hostesses were assisted by Mrs. Roy Raley, Mrs. Olive Haven, Mrs. Louis La Dow and Mrs. G. I. La Dow.

Friday Bridge Club members enjoyed a charming meeting yesterday with Mrs. R. Raymond at her home on Water street. High score honors fell to Mrs. Herbert Greene. There were no guests other than the club members.

About fifty ladies attended the birthday party given by the ladies of the missionary society of the Christian church Friday afternoon in the basement of the church. The rooms were beautifully decorated in lavender and white. The ladies spent a pleasant hour with their fancy work. Then a guessing contest was enjoyed by all. Mrs. H. H. Hubbell and Mrs. Ayers carried off the honors. Dainty refreshments were served by Mesdames Roe, John Greulich, St. Reetz, Mathews, M. L. Peters and J. E. Sharp. A birthday offering of $17.82 was received.

Mrs. Will Moore was a delightful hostess on Thursday afternoon, entertaining the members of the North Side Bridge Club at her home on Jackson street. A luncheon preceded the card playing. Mrs. W. E. Brock was the successful contestant for high score. The only guest beside the club members was Mrs. H. H. Hattery.

About twenty maids and matrons of the younger set enjoyed the pretty informal afternoon for which Mrs. W. D. McNary was hostess Thursday in honor of Miss Mildred Berkeley, who is to leave shortly for an eastern trip. A color motif of lavender was developed in all the appointments of the affair.

The Parent-Teacher Association of Pendleton will hold a union meeting in the auditorium of the library, Monday evening, January 22, at 7:30 o'clock. All members, parents and those interested are urged to attend. Mrs. C. H. Williams president of the Parent-Teacher's Council will open the meeting with a short talk on Parent-Teacher work. The topic of the evening will be "My Problem," to be discussed by the various heads of the school, the school board and representative parents. In addition to the speaking there will be vocal solos by Mrs. Carl Power and Mrs. S. H. Forshaw and a violin solo by Miss Kess.

Announcements were received yesterday of the marriage of Miss Elizabeth Pikan to Mr. Edward Roy Smith which was solemnized on Tuesday, January 15, at Woodburn, Ore. Mr. and Mrs. Smith left immediately after the ceremony for an extended visit to San Francisco, Los Angeles and other coast points. They will be at home after February 10 at Blalock. Mrs. Smith formerly made her home in Pendleton and she has a large circle of friends here.

All the Christian Endeavor societies of the city will meet at the Christian church on Tuesday evening, January 23, at 8 o'clock for a pre-convention rally. Clarence D. Hamilton, field manager of the Christian Endeavor World will be present and will make a short address. An interesting program is being prepared and it is hoped that a large number of young people will attend. The Christian Endeavor convention is to be held in La Grande on the 16 and 17 of February. About 50 delegates will attend from Umatilla, more than 20 of whom will be from this city.

Mrs. P. H. Buchholz and Mrs. J. J. Herlick of Stanfield, are in Pendleton today to see the latter's daughter, Yvonne who is studying at St. Joseph's Academy.

Mrs. R. N. Stanfield expects to leave tomorrow for Salem where she will spend several weeks with her husband, who is speaker of the present legislative house.

The Pilot Rock social club gave another of its delightful dances last night with quite a number of Pendleton folk in attendance.

Mrs. Roy T. Bishop entertained informally yesterday at a very delightful little sewing party in honor of her mother, Mrs. Theodore Burmaster, whose birthday it was. The guests included a number of close friends of the honoree.

This morning shortly before noon Thomas H. Corry of Pilot Rock and Miss Emma C. Edwards who arrived this morning from California, were united in marriage by Rev. J. E. Snyder of the Presbyterian church, the ceremony being performed at the court house.

Pendleton Lodge No. 244 is to host for an informal dancing party for its members and friends on January 25, the affair being at the Eagles-Woodmen hall.

Mr. and Mrs. George Peringer are planning to leave with the delegation of Pendleton folk who will visit St. Paul next week to attend the carnival. Mr. and Mrs. Peringer will also go on to Chicago for a short visit.

ONE PEEP AT THIS COST CHICAGO MAN $3500

"Peeping Toms" occasionally "get away with it," but Peter Zyla not only did not "get away with it," but it cost him $3500 to see less than is shown in the photograph.

Recently there was an accident in the Chicago stock yards and Peter Zyla, employed there, complained that it cost him his sight. He passed every medical test and was awarded $3500, the amount guaranteed by the casualty company that insured the yards from loss. The company, however, was not certain that Zyla was really blind and its Chicago manager framed a "fake" movie in Peter's yard.

Everything went well until the "director" ordered the actress to draw up her skirts and expose her ankles. This was too much for "blind" Peter, who peeped and now is out the $3500. The picture shows Miss Hazel Daly, who posed as the actress and the ankle Peter peeped.
